

2024 ANNUAL REPORT

- INCREASED PARTICIPATION IN PROGRAMS AND EVENTS
- HIGH PROGRAM SATISFACTION

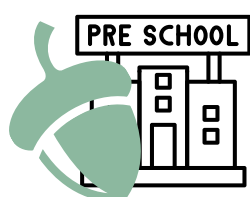

Participation

18% increase in participation and attendance over 2023

Environmental education

5,321 Students reached through school programs

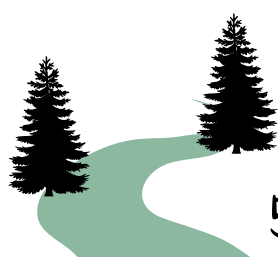

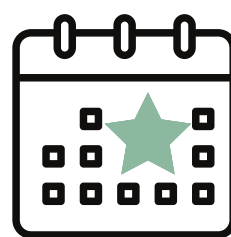

Little Acorns Nature Preschool

38 three and four-year-olds served

Programs and events

7,193 people reached through public programs, special events, and outreach programs

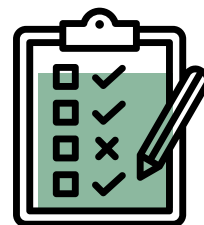

Outdoor experiences

5,054+ trail users and walk-in visitors

Evaluation

93% average program satisfaction rate

Volunteers

108 volunteers

2,208+ volunteer hours

Ecology Farm & Garden

48 garden plots and educational honeybee apiaries

Conservation

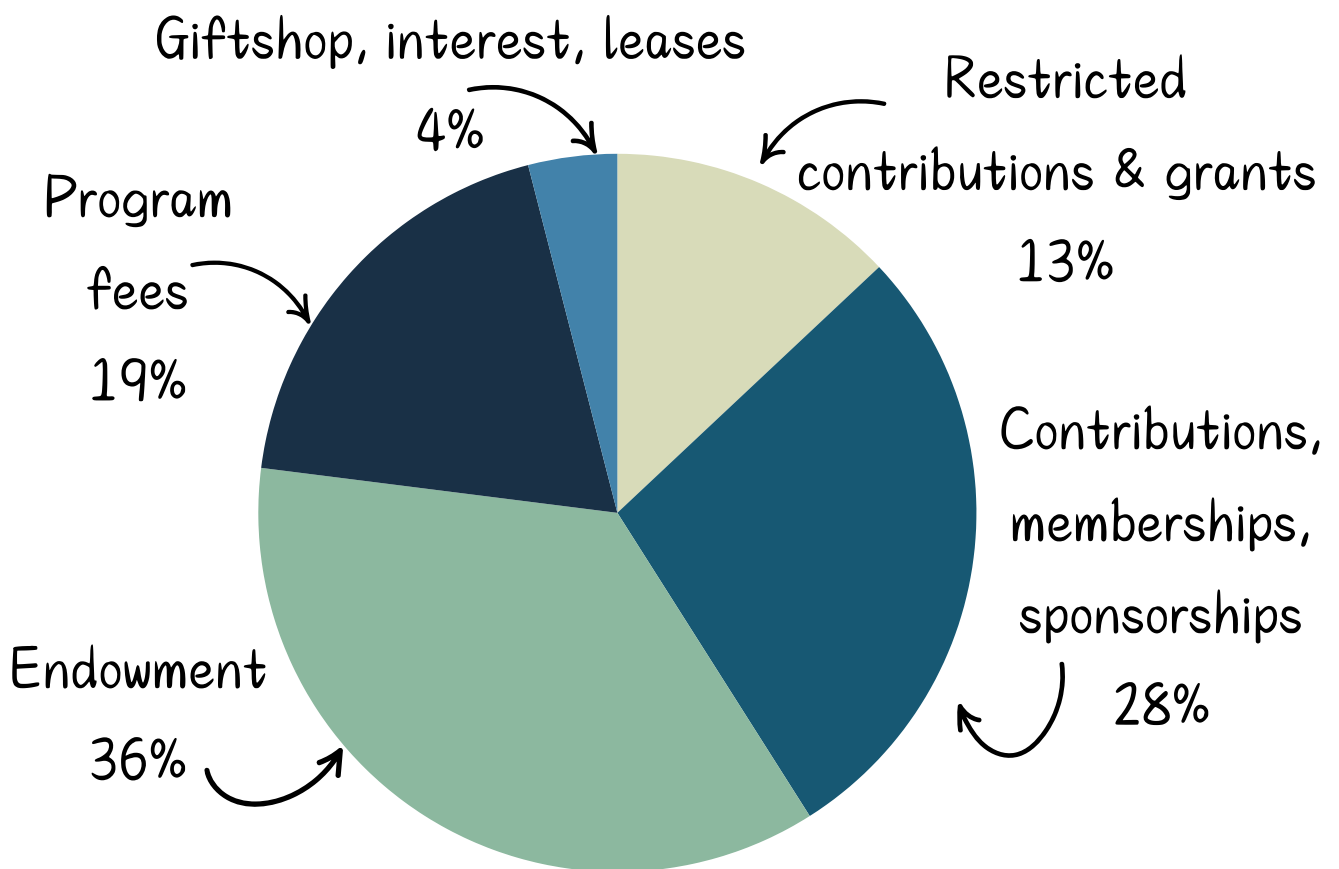

20.5 Acres of habitat restoration through habitat management practices

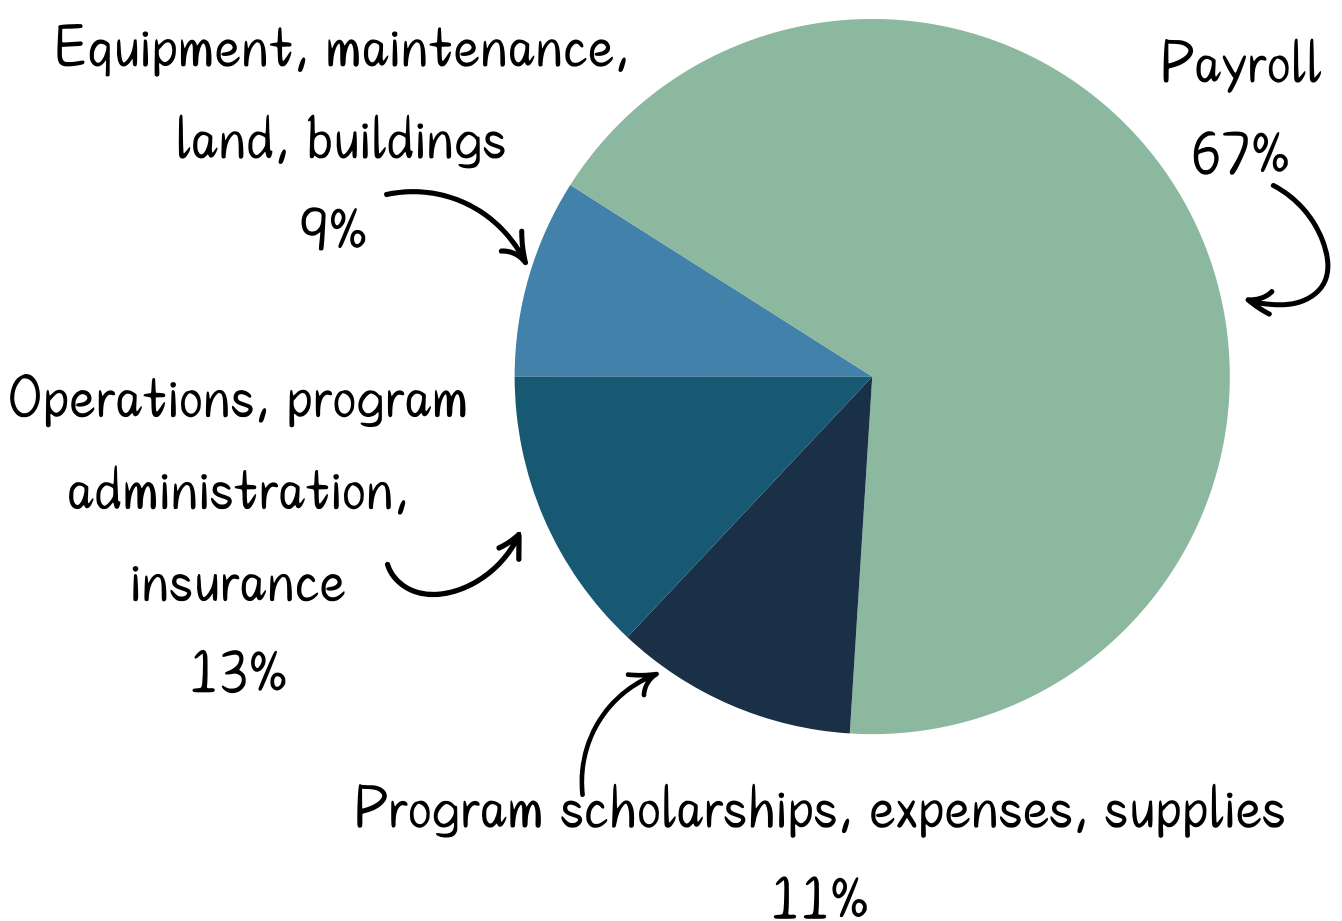

Dahlem
Jackson's Nature Place

2024 ANNUAL REPORT

FUNDING SOURCES

HOW FUNDS WERE USED

COMMUNITY SERVICES

- Five miles of trails and a nature playscape - open to everyone daily, year-round
- Environmental education programming, outdoor learning, and land stewardship opportunities
- Little Acorns Nature Preschool and Summer Outdoor Adventure Day Camp
- Family-friendly programs and events including Birds, Blooms, and Butterflies Festival and Goblin Walks
- Adult programming including beekeeping classes and Betty's Garden at the Ecology Farm

The Dahlem Conservancy is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization serving the people of South-central Michigan by providing environmental education and outdoor experiences.